

Helen Parker, founding partner of Aldridge Parker and previously a partner at Bird & Bird, is setting up a new niche employment and business immigration practice from 1 March called Parker & Co.

Joining her are Aldridge Parker's 3 assistants and its Office Manager, Michele Garrow. The assistants all have City firm backgrounds. They are Richard Woolmer, who has worked with Parker since he was a trainee at Wilde Sapte, Dan Begbie-Clench who joined Aldridge Parker in 2005 from Olswang and Jackie Holden who joined Aldridge Parker in 2004 from Denton Wilde Sapte.

The firm is based in the City which is convenient for providing services to its core client base which includes many employers and employees from the Financial Services industry including an investment bank, a retail bank, firms of accountants and insurance companies.

Please contact Helen Parker on 020 7614 3501 if you require any further information about this press release.
